MEMORANDUM FOR GENERAL C. P. CABELL

Admiral Frost has asked me to solicit your appearance at the Naval Intelligence School this summer as a guest speaker for the Operational Intelligence Orientation Course for Friendly-Allied Officers.

It has been suggested by the Naval Intelligence School Director that you might speak on "Necessity for an Organized Intelligence Effort." This topic is suggested as a final presentation for that portion of the curriculum devoted to "Intelligence as Organization." Previous lectures will have generally covered organization for U.S. national security, with emphasis on the intelligence aspect, i.e., individual U.S. intelligence organizations, their cooperative function in the community concept, their coordination as required by the National Security Act, etc..

Two times submitted for your consideration are Tuesday, 26 July from 1230 to 1320 or Wednesday, 27 July 0930 to 1020. If neither of these times or dates are satisfactory, the schedule can be adjusted to conform with your desires.
